EXP ENG 497 Graduate Coop Experience

This course provides credit for a summer internship or coop in industry in which an explosives or blasting related project is defined.

Instructor: variable

Catalog Description: (3.0) Students on an approved internship will complete a project designed by the advisor and employer. The project selected must require that students apply critical thinking skills and discipline specific knowledge in the work setting. A major report and a formal presentation are required.